FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OSLAA BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

It was announced today at a noon press conference that Loyola of Montreal would again host the Ottawa-St.Lawrence Athletic Association Basketball championship Friday February 26th and Saturday February 27th.

The tournament will get underway at 6:30 P.M. Friday with 1st place Loyola going against 4th place R.M.C., and in game #2 at 8:30 2nd place Macdonald will play host to 3rd place Bishop's.

The winners of both Friday night games will meet for the championships Saturday February 27th at 8:00 P.M.

Loyola enters the tournament with a perfect 15-0 record, however it was left until the final regular league game to decide the standings of the other three teams.

Macdonald although having an identical 9-5 record with Bishop's was awarded 2nd place on the basis of their 2-1 record in games played between the two teams this season.

Loyola are the pre-tournament favourites but anything can and usually does happen in the playoffs and this tournament should be no exception.

Admission both nights will be $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students and children.
